Week One Reflection

As we close out week one, I would challenge you to sit with God and take an assessment.

Are you actively showing up daily "as a "living" sacrifice? If so, list out what that looks like. If not, what is holding you back?

Week One was about “transformed sacrifice,” What have you recently transformed or need to transform in your attitude when it comes to being a living sacrifice?

Today's culture promotes self-worship, comfort, and living your own truth as our life’s focus, but with the redeemed it should not be this way. What is at least one worldly standard you have accepted or fallen into? Take time to intentionally surrender it to God and turn back to His way.

Verses to reflect on:

1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Ephesians 4:22-24
