Week Three Reflection

I told you in the beginning, this is the week for my checklist people and here it is...

Romans 12:9-13	Living it Out	+/-
Let love be without dissimulation	Am I loving others genuinely without any fake masks, pretense, or hidden motives?
Abhor that which is evil	Am I deeply repulsed by sin, actively turning away from things that grieve the Holy Spirit?
Cleave to that which is good	Am I tightly glued to what is right, pure, and pleasing to God?
Be kindly affectionate one to another with brotherly love	Am I showing deep, parental/sibling-like tenderness to my brothers and sisters in Christ?
In honour preferring one another	Am I going before others as a leading example of a living sacrifice?
Not slothful in business	Am I executing my daily duties, responsibilities, and tasks without laziness?
Fervent in spirit	Am I keeping my spirit overflowing, serving with excitement rather than duty/routine?
Serving the Lord	Am I serving in everything as to if I am serving Jesus Christ?
Rejoicing in hope	Am I looking past my circumstances and fixing my joy on the One to Come?
Patient in tribulation	Am I refusing to shrink back or give up my faith, even when facing a hard diagnosis, trial, or storm?
Continuing instant in prayer	Am I talking with God all through the day, making prayer my immediate first response instead of grumbling or calling a friend?
Distributing to the necessity of saints	Am I keeping my eyes open to the practical needs of the church body and meeting them generously?
Given to hospitality	Am I actively looking for opportunities to give, serve, and love others, being the living hands and feet of Jesus?
